Frequently Asked Questions

What are you looking for from applicants to the School of Nursing?
Admission to the School of Nursing is highly competitive and selective. Our faculty are involved in the process from the very beginning. We are looking for students who have developed an interest in healthcare as a career and who have an interest in the type of curriculum we are offering. The review committee, comprised of faculty from the School of Nursing and the Office of Admissions, will review applications. Interviews are not required, but may be requested on a case-by-case basis.

The review committee considers all aspects of the application. We are looking for motivated individuals who have taken their academic preparation seriously. An applicant’s motivation for a career as a Nurse is very important in our selection process. Pre-Nursing freshmen applicants are reviewed relative to high school cumulative GPA, math, science, and English GPA, and SAT/ACT scores. Transfer applicants to the Pre-Nursing Program are reviewed relative to undergraduate cumulative math, science, and English GPA. In addition to the previously listed documents, BSN Program applicants will also be reviewed based upon completion of the ATI Test of Essential Academic Skills (ATI TEAS) Examination, School of Nursing Supplemental Application, personal statement, and School of Nursing Recommendation Forms. Due to the competitive nature of the program, most successful candidates will have met more than just minimum requirements. For further information regarding the application process to the School of Nursing, please visit www.bridgeport.edu/nursing.

How many students are accepted into the BSN Program?
Each Fall semester, a total of 80-90 BSN students are accepted into the School of Nursing. These students are a combination of new freshmen and transfer applicants, current UB students from our Pre-Nursing Program, and current UB students who are changing their major to Nursing.

When should I apply? Is there an application deadline?
Traditional BSN applicants are expected to complete their full application for admission to the BSN Program by February 1st of each year. Applications are considered complete once all documents, as listed on page 4 of this packet, have been submitted. New transfer applicants will work directly with Admissions to complete this process. University of Bridgeport Pre-Nursing and internal change of major students will work directly with the School of Nursing to complete this process.

How can I assess my eligibility for admission?
All candidates are eligible to apply to the BSN program, but eligibility for admission will only be assessed by the UB School of Nursing after February 1st for those who have met the admission deadline. Using the documents contained in this guide, especially the Supplemental Application, candidates should self-identify their eligibility for entry into the BSN program. Candidates may apply while prerequisite coursework is in-progress, as long as the progression of prerequisite coursework will allow completion of all prerequisites prior to the start of the BSN program.

Do you offer a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) to Registered Nurse (RN) bridge program?
We do not offer an LPN to RN bridge program. However, LPNs are encouraged to apply to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing as new transfer applicants. LPNs will be reviewed according to all transfer standards as listed in the BSN Admissions page linked above. Transfer credit may be awarded for general education coursework that meets basic transfer criteria, and will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. However, credit will not be awarded for practical nursing coursework or experience.

Is experience in the healthcare field required for admission to the School of Nursing?
While experience is not required, applicants to the School of Nursing may find it beneficial to volunteer within the healthcare field. Additionally, Bachelor of Science in Nursing candidates may receive further admissions consideration based on relevant work and volunteer experience within healthcare.

Is the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program offered entirely online, in the evening, or on weekends?
Courses within the curriculum of the BSN Program are generally available Monday through Friday between the hours of 8am and 5pm. Labs and clinical may be scheduled during evening hours. Additionally, students should expect to be enrolled on a full-time basis, meaning enrolled in 12 or more credit hours per semester. However, general education and pre-requisite coursework within the Pre-Nursing Program may be available in alternate formats, such as online, evening, or weekend offerings. Important Note: In order to maintain scholarship eligibility, students must enter UB with full-time status, and maintain full-time status throughout the entirety of their enrollment with the University.

Can I tour campus and visit the Nursing Skills and Simulation Center site before being accepted?
Yes, it is strongly encouraged that all prospective students tour campus. Candidates are strongly encouraged to attend an Open House or School of Nursing Information Session. To view upcoming UBSN and Admissions events, please visit www.bridgeport.edu/bsninfo.
