CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL GRADUATES!

Congratulations on achieving this important milestone!

The University of Bridgeport will be celebrating its One Hundred and Seventh Commencement Ceremony in May. It will be celebrated in two separate events. Both Ceremonies will be filmed and live streamed throughout the world so that our graduates’ families and friends will have the opportunity to attend virtually. Please follow the directions below in order to join us: Visit http://www.bridgeport.edu/live

The live video stream for the Health Sciences Division will begin on Sunday May 7, 2017 at 11:00 a.m.

The live video stream for the Commencement at the Webster Bank Arena at Harbor Yard will begin on Saturday, May 6, 2017 at 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, May 7, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in The Arnold Bernhard Arts and Humanities Center, André and Clara Mertens Theater, 84 Iranistan Avenue, Bridgeport, CT the University of Bridgeport will celebrate the conferral of degrees for the Health Sciences Division graduate candidates from Acupuncture Institute, Human Nutrition Institute, Physician Assistant Institute, Fones School of Dental Hygiene (Master’s Program), College of Chiropractic and College of Naturopathic Medicine Degrees.

Sunday, May 7, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in The Arnold Bernhard Arts and Humanities Center, André and Clara Mertens Theater, 84 Iranistan Avenue, Bridgeport, CT the University of Bridgeport will celebrate the conferral of degrees for the Health Sciences Division graduate candidates from the Acupuncture Institute, College of Chiropractic, Fones School of Dental Hygiene (Master’s program), College of Naturopathic Medicine, Human Nutrition Institute and the Physician Assistant Institute.

We hope the information contained in this guide will assist you and your family in planning for this year’s Commencement Ceremony.

Please read the following information carefully.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All students who would like to participate in Commencement Exercises and be included in the Ceremony Program MUST meet the following criteria by the date specified:

- Application for Commencement is online through webadvisor
- Application for Graduation MUST have been received by the Registrar’s Office no later than February 15, 2017. Please make an appointment with your academic advisor to review your record prior to submitting the application online through your webadvisor account.

Once your diploma is available, you will receive an e-mail in your UB e-mail account asking you to verify the mailing address and offering you the option of picking up your diploma in person. Processing takes approximately 20-30 days after your commencement date.

- All students who received a Federal Direct Loan MUST complete an Exit Interview by April 27, 2017. The Federal Direct Loan Exit Interview is available online at www.studentloans.gov. Students can review their individual loan information by logging in at: www.nslds.ed.gov Financial Aid Review.

- The Graduation Fee of $150.00 MUST be paid. Contact Student Financial Services if you have questions (call 203-576-4568, or e-mail: sfs@bridgeport.edu).

- The International Center for Students and Scholars welcomes students graduating from the University of Bridgeport to review the process on how to invite their family to the commencement by first researching how to apply for a visitor’s visa through the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in one’s home country. As a reference, a sample letter is provided to guide you with writing your own formal supportive letter and may be accessed by navigating to our webpage under Practical Matters. http://www.bridgeport.edu/life/international-student-services/practical-matters/

- All candidates will receive this commencement packet in the mail, if they completed their application on line by February 15, 2017 and have a current address on file.

If you submitted a late application for graduation, you may still be eligible to participate in the Ceremony. Please include your School, College or Institute in all correspondence.

COMMENCEMENT PACKET

A Guide for Graduation is a part of your Commencement Packet and has been prepared for all candidates wishing to participate in the Commencement Ceremony and those who have a valid mailing (postal) address. The Commencement Packet includes the following:

One (1) Guide for Graduation
Four (4) Generic Graduation Announcements
One (1) Reader's Card

All addresses are provided by The Registrar’s Office. If you do not receive your Commencement Packet, please contact ubcommencement2017@bridgeport.edu. Packets may be picked up In Person at The Office of Special Events, Room 229, John J. Cox Student Center if you have applied after the deadline or returned because of a wrong address.
Guest Tickets

The University of Bridgeport has contracted with University Tickets to distribute e-tickets to the Commencement Ceremony. Please login to Bridgeport.edu/tickets for all Commencement tickets. Tickets will not be available on campus. A computer and printer have been dedicated for graduation candidates to request their tickets in the Office of Special Events, John J. Cox Student Center, Room 229 and The UB Bookstore from April 4 – 30, 2017, 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Please note: to order tickets for Commencement, Candidates must use their University of Bridgeport credentials (login ID and Password).

Commencement tickets will not be available until April 4, 2017. All graduation candidates must print out the confirmation page for admittance into the lineup area in the Arnold Bernhard Arts and Humanities Center, Room 113. The confirmation page will enable the school marshals/commencement aides to place you in the proper order for the Ceremony. Please verify the information on the confirmation page for accuracy. If you applied for Commencement after the deadline there is no guarantee that guest tickets will be available.

ALL GUESTS ARE REQUIRED TO HAVE A TICKET, including children. EACH CANDIDATE WILL RECEIVE UP TO FOUR GUEST TICKETS that must be ordered online at Bridgeport.edu/tickets. Tickets must be requested by the graduation candidates using their Bridgeport login. If you do not need four tickets, PLEASE order only the number of tickets that you need so that others may enjoy them.

If you do not request your guaranteed commencement tickets by April 18, 2017 they will be redistributed to other students and no longer be available. Unclaimed tickets will be available on a first come, first serve basis starting on April 26, 2017 at 9:00 a.m. (Up to an additional four (4) tickets) You must log back onto University Tickets and request the unclaimed tickets.

Please do not telephone or email The Special Events Office for tickets. All tickets will be handled through University Tickets. Special Events will assist if you have a problem obtaining your tickets. Please do not wait until after the deadlines as all the tickets will be gone.

The Health Sciences Division Ceremony will be simulcast in the and Jeanne and Henry W. Littlefield Recital Hall. A separate ticket will be needed for admittance. These tickets will become available after all the tickets for the main theater have been distributed. Tickets will be available on a first come first served basis after April 26, 2017. Graduation Candidates will have to login to University Tickets again to request these tickets.

Commencement Reader Card

All graduation candidates must have a Commencement Reader Card for the announcement of their name at the Ceremony. Please complete the card in full. This is for when you walk across the stage. Island Photo will also use this information for your photo for which you are under no obligation to purchase. For correct pronunciation of your name, please legibly record the correct phonetic pronunciation of your name on the line provided. If you do not provide this information, your name may not be pronounced correctly.
ACADEMIC REGALIA

Commencement regalia order form must be submitted to the UB Bookstore, John J. Cox Student Center.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION INFORMATION

Congratulations! You are now an official alumnus of the University of Bridgeport and now a member of the UB Alumni Association. As an alumnus, you will be invited to attend both networking and social events, locally and regionally. You are always welcome to attend UB Purple Knights athletic events, academic lectures, panel discussions, art shows and to participate in various other alumni or University related activities. Go to www.bridgeport.edu/alumni or email alumni@bridgeport.edu to stay informed, or to update your information, as well as enjoying UB alumni services and benefits.

Another way to stay engaged is to support the programs that mean the most to you through an annual gift. Each year hundreds of alumni choose to make a financial commitment to UB as a way of saying thanks for the opportunities afforded to them as a student. It is also a way to show gratitude for the degree you’ve earned and where it has gotten you in your career. Each year you’ll be contacted by the Office of Annual Giving and we hope that you’ll join the leagues of other alumni who are improving UB each day with their donations. If you have any questions about support/giving – please email us at alumni@bridgeport.edu.

THE CENTER FOR CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The Center for Career Development at the University of Bridgeport is dedicated to assisting students in making a successful transition from campus to career. Don’t wait to visit until after you graduate! Students are encouraged to take advantage of career programming and individual advisement appointments to assist you in your job search, or developing your own personalized career plan. Be sure to register and/or update your profile on UBjobnet, as well as follow us online to learn about exciting opportunities or career related events!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Who should I contact for additional information?
A. Any questions concerning Commencement should be directed to the Special Events Office located in Room 227/229 of the John J. Cox Student Center. You may telephone 203-576-4530, or e-mail us with your questions/concerns to ubcommencement2017@bridgeport.edu. All academic questions should be directed to your respective Institute/School/College dean’s office.

Q. How long will the ceremony last?
A. The ceremony is approximately one hour and 30 minutes, but duration is variable. We aim for the recessional to take place at approximately 12:30 p.m. (It’s your graduation. Relax and enjoy!)

Q. Does a candidate need an admission ticket to the Commencement Ceremony?
A. All candidates are required to present their Confirmation Page at the assembly area for admission. The confirmation page is available online from University Tickets at bridgeport.edu/tickets.

Q. Do guests need tickets?
A. All guests must have tickets to be admitted to the Mertens Theater for the Commencement Ceremony. This includes children. Tickets are available online from University Tickets at bridgeport.edu/tickets.

Q. Where do I get my Commencement Packet?
A. This Guide is a part of your Commencement Packet along with announcement cards which are mailed to all candidates.

Q. Will there be printed announcements available for graduates to send to relatives and friends?
A. Yes. A packet with four (4) generic announcements were mailed along with the Guide for Graduates. Additional announcements may be obtained from the Special Events Office, John J. Cox Student Center Room 229. If you would like custom announcements, please visit http://college.jostens.como/jostens/college/home.

Q. Where do I find the most up-to-date information?
A. Please check the UB portal for all updates.
Q. Must I purchase Academic Regalia? (page 5)
A. In order to participate in the ceremony, candidates for graduation must wear regalia, which includes a cap and gown and the appropriate academic hood for their degree. No one will be permitted in the assembly area without regalia. However if you have regalia or can borrow the appropriate regalia; you do not need to purchase it. Any regalia requested after April 15, 2017 cannot be guaranteed to be correct.
