Note to Advisors: According to U. S. Citizenship & Immigration Services (USCIS) regulations academic probation, suspension, dismissal, poor academic progress, and unauthorized breaks do not constitute a legitimate, compelling academic reason for an extension of the I-20 form. In these cases, students in F-1 status must apply to USCIS for reinstatement or lawfully re-enter the U.S. If you have any questions, please contact the International Center for Students and Scholars at x4395.

By signing this form, I, the student's academic advisor, verify that the above mentioned student has maintained normal progress towards degree completion. The delay of his/her degree completion is not caused by academic probation, separation, suspension, unauthorized breaks or poor academic performance. The compelling academic reason* that caused a delay in expected graduation is:

Signature _____ Date _____
