Walk-ins welcome!
To find eJournals:

1. On the library homepage (accessed through your myUB Portal) click on eJournal Finder.
2. Type the name of a specific journal or subject term in the search box and click Go.
3. On the results page, click on the name of a journal to open a small window listing our coverage (the years and issues we have). A journal may be available from more than one source. If that is the case, you will see it noted.
4. In that window, click on the Click for full text link to access the page* for that journal with access to the available issues.

To find print journals:

1. Click on Articles above OneSearch on the library home page (accessed through your myUB Portal).
2. Type your journal title or search term in the search box.
3. Choose Journals in the drop-down menu that says Articles below the search box.
4. Press Search.
5. When you find the journal you’re looking for, click on Holdings list to see our journal coverage (which years and issues we have).
6. Print journals are on the 4th Floor.
